Benjamin Jensen is a temporal researcher, a good one. His career started out rough when he nearly destroyed all of history, or lost the love of his life in a tragic accident which could have been prevented by him later in his career; but things have a way of working out. His favorite flight home is on the drop-ship from low Earth orbit, and he try's as hard as he can to get anyone to join him. His close friends run the Flight Dome on Lunar Base, where flapping and flying like a bird is commonplace and a fun pastime, but his real passion is for historical events.... or more precisely the events surrounding and leading up to the actual event in focus. Join Benjamin Jensen and his classmates as they discover what it means to be a Temporal Researcher. Find out the dangers and rewards this life could offer in this adventure of historical importance.
