A Glass Half-Full (Guardians of the Light Book 1) Kristin Darken

Influenced by contemporary fantasy authors Susan B. Cooper (the Dark is Rising series), Mercedes Lackey (Bedlam Bard, Diana Tregarde, and The SERRATED Edge), and Jim Butcher (Dresden Files); Kristin Darken's "A Glass Half-Full" brings a new team of witches, wizards, and energy workers into the never ending battle between the Light and Dark. A veteran warrior for the Light, David finds himself drafted for special assignment to teach a new group of novices and guard them until they are ready to enter the field themselves. But in surprising manga-like fashion, he is placed 'undercover' with these teenagers as a fellow student... a cute female one. As Dawn, he discovers that there is more to life and ensuring the victory of the Light than just the ongoing battle. That Love and Friendship are important aspects to victory over the Dark.
