Before The Killing Starts (Dixie Killer Blues Book 1) James Harper

Time is running out...

Hot shot private investigator Evan Buckley can find anyone—except for his wife, Sarah, who disappeared five years ago without a trace. All he wants now is to find her—safe and sound. When Ellie Martin, Sarah's manipulative and deceitful friend shows up, promising information regarding his wife, Evan will do anything to help Ellie—even if it means getting in over his head in a world of dangerous psychopathic drug lords, drug lords who are out to silence anyone who knows too much. Evan Buckley is about to know way more than he bargained for.

Evan knows his life is in danger, but then Ellie admits that she left Sarah holding millions of dollars that belonged to a notorious gang leader, a gang leader who wants his money back and the people involved dead. The cold-blooded killers are already on their way to make sure somebody has one very bad day, and Evan's time is running out before the killing starts.
