Casa na Rua Esperança, A Danielle Steel

Em A Casa Na Rua Esperança, seu 53º romance, Danielle Steel manteve a rotina de sucessos à qual está habituada, chegando às principais listas de mais vendidos dos Estados Unidos, e levando novamente aos seus leitores o glamour, a emoção e as tramas cativantes que já venderam mais de 500 milhões de livros em todo o mundo.

Liz Sutherland, mulher do brilhante Jack (também seu sócio num escritório de advocacia especializado em causas de divórcio) e mãe de cinco lindos filhos, é a mais feliz das mulheres até que a tragédia entra em sua vida. A felicidade familiar desmorona numa manhã de Natal, quando o ex-marido de uma das clientes do casal assassina Jack a tiros. Liz e os meninos mergulham, então, em um terrível pesadelo. E terão de reaprender a viver sem o marido e o pai amado. A vida é difícil mas, com o passar do tempo, as feridas começam a cicatrizar. Até que outro acidente, dessa vez com seu filho, ameaça jogar Liz e sua família novamente no fundo do poço. Porém quando ela conhece Bill Webster, médico que cuida do garoto, algo acontece entre os dois. E, em meio ao desespero da tragédia, abre-se uma fresta de alegria através da qual Liz e os meninos conseguem, mais uma vez, vislumbrar a felicidade.

Danielle Steel não poupa o leitor. A escritora conhece como ninguém a anatomia da dor. A contagiosa e palpável sinceridade da autora conquistará de imediato a simpatia dos leitores de A Casa Na Rua Esperança.

"Tão criativa quanto John Grisham ou Robin Cook." - O Estado de S. Paulo
