Hokey Pokey: Curious People Finding What Life's All About Matthew Paul Turner

We all want to discover our purpose-to find the place where our passions align with God's perfect will. Yet it seems that many people are continually searching for something more. The frequent result? We find ourselves stepping in and out of careers, trying to shake our doubts, and seemingly spinning in circles.

Popular author Matthew Paul Turner explores the universal desire to live with purpose. Packing his hipster humor and irreverent sensibilities, Matthew takes to the road to collect uncommon wisdom from people who are living out their calling-from pastors, to professors, to the guy next door. Each conversation offers personal insights for finding our place in God's big picture and young adults will be encouraged and challenged in their pursuit of a life well lived.
