God spoke the world into existence, and when the world was without form, He used the word of His mouth to speak everything into order.

As children of the lord Most High, He has given us the power to speak His word to change any unpleasant situation in our lives. Many believers are under-utilizing this power, while some are not using it at all. The word of God is a powerful weapon that can be used to change your situation if used properly and appropriately. This life transforming daily devotional will channel your mind towards using your kingdom right and authority to change and transform your world to God's ordained plan and purpose. This book is a compilation of life changing message that will inspire you to exercise your kingdom right.
