Amazon Bestseller

In Volume 1 of True Ghost Stories read more first-hand accounts of paranormal encounters with ghosts, written by people who have a tale to tell.

These stories are not hyped fiction; they are actual accounts contributed by people around the world who have chosen to put their paranormal experiences on the record, for all to read. These eye-witness descriptions are extracts from the largest, paranormal survey ever conducted on the internet. The survey is ongoing and open to all.

These stories are not the sensationalised tales of old, like those written by Edgar Allan Poe. These genuine accounts are, without exception, written by people in moderate tones that are devoid of sensationalist imagining and dramatic exaggerations. Such books belong in the fiction section.

So, are everyday encounters with apparitions as scary as some would have you believe? Pick up a copy of True Ghost Stories Volume 1 and decide for yourself. You may be pleasantly surprised.

This series of Short Tales of the Supernatural is edited by Rosemary Breen who completed her higher degree dissertation on spontaneous parapsychological phenomena.

If you're ready for the truth about supernatural activities this Volume is a great place to start.
