Great Grammar Lessons That Work (Grades 3-6) Lee Karnowski

Help students discover the rules of grammar by teaching it in the context of engaging reading and writing activities. Kids learn how our language works by noticing what authors do and by having fun with words. Lessons, oral language activities, group games and writing activities explore parts of speech, punctuation, sentences, and word choice. From proper nouns to improper use of personification, this resource covers it all in a way that makes sense to students. For use with Grades 3-6.
