Damian Salisbury finds himself out of money following a massive mishap in the criminal underworld. Sadly, the man he feels is responsible for this situation is the city's undisputed criminal kingpin, Doran Mark. At the suggestion and with the help of his friends, Damian sets out to exact his revenge on the so called ruler of Meridian City by hiring the best hitman there ever was, Petrus Henriksen, although he unknowingly ties his story with that of Lucas Lorenzen, seemingly a mysterious drunk with a gnawing past that has come at last to collect a debt. A play of pretend and a bit of imagination complicate the mess, and the plot thickens as an ex con attempts redemption, only to find it isn't so easy, especially when dealing with an amorous nurse, an ambitious police chief and a former employer going through a mid crime-life crisis. Nature is full of conflicts between Jackals & Bulls, and it remains to be seen which wild characters will survive a mess of this proportion.
