Escape: Children of the Holocaust Allan Zullo

A collection of gripping true-life accounts of children struggling through and surviving the Holocaust.

By her ninth birthday, Halina Litman understood what her Jewish faith meant to the German occupiers of her town: death. Would she be able to escape?

Follow Halina's gripping story, along with other incredible, true-life accounts of children in the Holocaust. These survivors put up secret resistance, used false identities, and deceived the Nazis. Through the remarkable kindness of others and their own inner strength, these children found a way to make it through the horrors of the war.

These enduring stories will captivate you and remind you of the power of hope.
