Midnight Raven: The Moon Series Book 2 (Volume 2) Becca Boucher

Kat Brennan was a loner. Trust no one, and don't let anyone in, was the mantra she lived her life by. The few times she had, it ended badly. Now alone and bitter she's facing the consequences of her actions. Until one night a chance encounter with a raven sets into motion a range of events, and desires, she thought she had buried long ago. Cace Matthews was a successful doctor to the outside world. He seemingly had it all, good looks, a fast paced career, and a prestigious new job. But no one knew the real Cace. The shifter who searched for the truth, the end to the curse that had been placed on his family. When the two cross paths it leads to discovery and passion. Can Kat accept her true lineage and the magic that surrounds her? More importantly, can she let go of decades old resentments and let herself find true love? Can Cace bridge the gap between family commitments, and the desire to be himself, all while navigating his true feelings for Kat? And will they both live to see midnight?
