A vicious coworker cut off Jada's hair, but her billionaire boss saved her.

When Jada turned down a racist man constantly begging to taste her "chocolate skin", she thought he might get a clue. Instead, he got scissors and cut off her hair.

She ran off crying, but her boss dealt with the jerk and came to console her. When he offered to take her to a stylist and buy her the best hair they could get, she thought she was living a dream.

Then he asked her to dinner, and to his surprise she turned him down until he explained that he's always wanted her. With their dinner half-finished, though, his lust gets the better of him and he pulls her across the table, and that's only the beginning of the steamy night ahead for Jada.
