The Real Dracula: Transcribed from the Journal of Thomas Titwell, assistant to Bram Stoker Charles Sheridan

This transcription of 'The Real Dracula' Journal is the contents of a journal found in a skip outside the Lyceum Theatre, Bram Stoker's former workplace. The contents of the skip came from a fire damaged room of a pub that was formerly part of the Theatre in the nineteenth century. The the transcription is word-for-word. All the scandal and accusation belongs to Thomas Titwell, deceased. This is his truth. I am merely an instrument of the journal's will.
