What Alice Forgot: A Detailed Summary About This Masterpiece Of Liane Moriarty!

What Alice Forgot is a novel written by Australian writer Liane Moriarty. It is a drama novel, with some humor in it and the story is about a 39-year-old which accidentally fell during one of her gym trainings, hitting her head which resulted in memory loss of her previous 10 years of life.

She thinks that she is 29, while she is actually 39, has three children and her marriage is on the brink of a divorce, which she does not realize at first.

The novel is written in a very intriguing and rather interesting way. It makes you ask yourself how any of us would feel if we had the similar accident and thus lost a memory of one of our periods of life. What would our 'younger' versions of ourselves think or say to our lives if they suddenly found themselves in their future (and our present)?

Besides the main female character, we are introduced with some other supporting characters that help to discover and to bring to an end the whole mess of the protagonist's life.

What Alice Forgot is another example of Moriarty's quirky, charming and 'in-depth' style of writing. Once again she successfully manages to keep the readers to read every page, from covers to covers, until they are done with the novel.
