In this book, Laurent La Gamba mixes autobiography and fiction inspired by the different people who posed as models for him during his camouflage installations. It is entitled Willing Suspension of Disbelief after Coleridge. Each photography is a departure point for a story that always comes back to camouflage in its figurative forms and shapes the narrative. The book is full of surprises, twists and irony and forms a thought-provoking and poetic whole. By the author of A Californian Odyssey, Welcome to Lethargy Land and The Estheticon.
