God's Story: The Bible Epic from Abraham to Exile Mark Roncace

The Bible features an amazing epic narrative. But hardly anyone knows it's in there, much less how riveting the story is. You have no idea what you're missing—the greatest story never told! That's because the Bible can be difficult to read, the plot hard to follow. Until now. God's Story is a reader-friendly version of the core Old Testament narrative that is faithful to the original and highly enjoyable and entertaining. Neither a paraphrase nor a fictionalized account "based on the Bible," Roncace presents the real Bible story as an actual story. He does so by removing distractions such as chapter and verse numbers, genealogies, laws, confusing names, and the like, and then gently elaborating the remainder in order to knit together a coherent plot and animate the characters. This unique approach enables the central storyline to emerge with power and conviction. From the faith of one man, Abraham, to the tragic fall of David's kingdom, readers will experience—many for the first time—this incredible epic in its entirety, including a variety of little-known scenes for adults only. God's Story is the Old Testament told anew, God's Word for today's world.
