CAUSE & EFFECT a thriller you won't want to put down DEREK THOMPSON

A brilliantly gritty British thriller that you won't be able to put down

A random attack on a child and a clinical assassination thrust Thomas Bladen into a dark conspiracy Thomas Bladen works in surveillance for a shadowy unit of the British government. But just when he thought things had settled down, his girlfriend Miranda's father calls in a favour. Thomas must investigate an attack on the loved one of a drug dealer. As he delves deeper, he finds out the truth about Miranda's past and his investigation takes him to the heart of the shadow state and endangers everyone Thomas cares about.

Can a good man survive in a very bad world and who can Thomas really trust now?

An edge-of-your-seat thriller that takes you on a riveting journey through the dark streets of London. Full of conflict, drama, excitement, and emotion.

This fast-paced thriller is perfect for fans of John le Carré, Robert Harris, Ken Follett, or even Ian Rankin.
