JACK HEART – We were drunk. It was just sex. It meant nothing. Don't worry about me. I'm fine. That is Jack Heart's mantra to himself and the other boys of the house the morning after his night with Garrett North. And when the man gives him the cold shoulder, barely acknowledging his existence, Jack comes to the full awareness of his mistake with Garrett, and the truth behind Scotty's words – "As soon as you have sex off camera...he's going to dump you." He had thought Scotty was simply jealous, unable to get past his infatuation with Garrett. Now Jack understood – he should have been listening to Scotty from the start.

LUCAS BLACK – Lucas has been friends with Garrett North for a few years now. He was there for the near tragedy that resulted from Garrett and Scotty's breakup. And there as his friend worked past the incident and began to live life to the fullest again. And he was there to witness Garrett's fall for the new guy, Jack Heart. Now suddenly, Garrett and Jack are acting like enemies, fighting their emotions, resisting one another with all their strength. Garrett is no longer the fun-loving guy Lucas has come to know and love, the life of the party. But neither Garrett nor Jack will confess the truth of what happened between them the night of Jack's initiation at the club. Lucas misses the old Garrett. All the boys of the house miss him. But how do you help someone who refuses to admit there is a problem?
