They've Taken Me Hostage!: Reflections of a Stay-at-Home-Dad (Black & White) Mike Kehoe

Come experience, the joys, frustrations, and laughs (especially the laughs) of a stay-at-home dad who is desperately trying to stay one step ahead of his five-year old daughter and his four-year old son. Written in a diary format over a year and a half period, this is one family experience that anyone who has ever been a parent would love to be a part of. Reminiscent of "Marley and Me", only with children and without the sad ending.
