Here Are Some Tips Straight From the Book

- A true leader does not need to use threats to get people to follow them. Instead, a true leader leads by example. If a leader wants those they are leading to have a certain standard then they set that standard and stick to it. They do not allow themselves to fall below that standard and by doing so, they are showing those who are following them that not only is it possible to reach that standard, but it is possible to maintain it as well.

- To be a great leader, you are going to have to make some changes within yourself. The first step is understanding that the changes need to be made with you, not with those you are leading. By making the changes within yourself, you will find that those you are leading will make the changes needed as well.

- What it all boils down to is that you have to know how to relate to people, how to understand people, how to motivate them, and how to keep people's attention. More than anything, you need to know how to take control of yourself, your own life, your own job, and your own emotions. If you can successfully convey this in an honest and straightforward way then people will WANT to follow you.
